Dear Thomas,

As you know, in early August we ran our first all-company engagement survey. It shared valuable information about our strengths as an organization as well as our opportunities for improvement. One question we asked was, "Who has inspired or engaged you the most at Aktana?"

YOU were the answer to this question shared by one or more of our employees. I wanted to take a moment to recognize you and the impact you are making on others in our organization. It is people like you who demonstrate 'Value the Person' and continue to build our unique and special culture here at Aktana.

Thank you for making an impact
